Photographers of all ages, backgrounds and experience levels are invited to enter their best images for a chance to win a variety of prizes from the Westshore Alliance.

The judges are looking to award the best single images that answer the following question:
“What does Westshore mean to you?”

The photos must be taken within the boundaries of the Westshore District as shown here - Kennedy Boulevard on the South; Rocky Point to the West; Himes Avenue to the East; and Boy Scout/Spruce to the West.

Photos should contain subject matter that include:

1. Events in the Westshore District
2. Transportation
3. Interior / Exterior Spaces
 - Commercial/Retail
 - Residential
 - Public Spaces
 - Natural Landscapes
 - Tampa Bay Waterfront
4. Abstract or Conceptual

A cash prize will be awarded for the photographs selected as First, Second and Third Place winners by the judges; winning and commended photographers will be included and credited through a pop-up gallery displayed within the Westshore District in Fall 2026.

Competition Rules, Terms & Conditions

The competition may award up to 40 finalists along with three First, Second and Third place photos. Judges are looking for interesting subject matter, good composition, creativity, and high resolution.

1. By entering the Competition, You hereby accept these Competition Rules, Terms and Conditions.
2. Images must be taken within the Westshore District. The boundaries of the Westshore District are Kennedy Boulevard to the South, Himes Avenue to the East, Hillsborough Avenue to the North, Independence Parkway to the West including all Rocky Point.
